

Defensive Driving for Teens

(Use each of the four segments separately in your classroom, or play as a continuous 16 minutes.)

Defensive Driving for Teens

Your teenage students need to understand how these four types of car collisions can affect them, and more important, how to avoid these crashes!

Defensive Driving at Intersections

Too many experienced driver assume that “green means go.” This segment simply and clearly explains defensive driving habits at intersections and stoplights.

Defensive Driving and Following Distance

Whether it's on the highway or residential streets, your students can avoid collisions by understanding the attitudes and techniques in this segment.

Defensive Driving on Country Roads

Mike Pehl calls these roads “the killer roads for our young people.” This segment includes very frank and potentially life-saving information about rural roads, and how to anticipate what a driver's best defensive choices may be.

Bonus Video

“In a Split Second” is also included on this DVD. We donate a portion of these sales to the Shreya R. Dixit Memorial Foundation, to support their work against distracted driving.